

THE WEEKLY ARIZONAN

JUNE 19.....1869.

LOCAL MATTERS.

Hon. R. C. McCormick, M. C., has our thanks for books and public documents.

ARRIVAL:—The train of I. Goldberg & Co., arrived from Yuma on Monday evening bringing, together with some quartermaster's stores, a stock of goods for Lord & Williams.

MAILS:—The times of arrival and departure of mails from and to Mesilla, N. M., on the Tucson and Mesilla line, have been changed the past week. Hereafter, the buggy mail will leave Tucson on Fridays, instead of Sundays as heretofore.

PAOR, LORIO sought to entertain his audience, on Saturday evening, by feats of legerdemain. It is just possible that he might have caused some of the barefooted archers to stare, had not ye skies interposed and moistened by a refreshing shower the spectators collected to witness the wonderful (?) beneath no other roof than the vault of heaven.

FIREWORKS:—A beautiful display of fireworks came off in front of Hodges' saloon on Monday evening. The surrounding atmosphere, owing to the quantity of sulphureous matter consumed, soon became impregnated with dense, black smoke which gave peculiar lustre to the sky-rockets and other pyrotechnical devices exploding in its midst.

MAJ. ALDRICH has been on his official warfare during the past week, making assessments. Now, there is nothing remarkable in the Major fulfilling the duties of his office as assistant assessor; but how his official presence acts upon men of affluence so as to reduce them to nominal indigence, remains to be explained; and that it so acts is plain enough, for we know a merchant who boasted a net profit of fifty dollars per day for the last two months, to have the hardihood to inform the Major that his business brought him in, per day, for the past month, a fraction over $8.00, and that his profits were therefore, "well—nothing." But he couldn't feel the Maj.

SONGSTER:—Perhaps the most indefatigable as well as the most melodious feathered songster to be found throughout the whole of the vast region west of the Rocky Mountains, is the mocking-bird of Arizona. One of these remarkable birds, owned by Juan Fernandez, of this city, may be heard at almost any hour, either day or night; at times mimicing, or attempting to mimic every passing sound, then warbling forth the sweetest and most plaintive melodies which, again, are followed by wild, thrilling notes, as though the little creature were endeavoring to prove by contrast and variety that its store of song is inexhaustible. An offer to purchase this bird for $100.00, in gold, has been refused by Don Fernandez.

SHOOTING:—We observed an individual a few evenings since, perform some very unbecoming antics at a corner of the plaza who, after he had exhausted his Kater Felto abilities, pulled forth a revolver and discharged two shots at unoffending darkness. He had doubtless heard of the arrival of a large stock of whisky a few days previous and was holding a celebration in the gladness of his heart. We expected to see him pounced upon and borne to quiet "lodgings" for the night; but no—he walked off unmolested. Occurrences of this nature are becoming very frequent, and the probabilities are that some of these festive sons of Bacchus will shoot either themselves or somebody else if measures be not taken to punish their recklessness and general misconduct.

THE PENNINGTON MASSACRE:—Since our last issue we received the following particulars concerning the Pennington tragedy, near Camp Crittenden:

CAMP CRITTENDEN, A. T.
June 11th, 1869.

WEEKLY ARIZONAN:—I have to announce to you that the Apaches have been at more of their devilry in this vicinity during the past week. On Wednesday they killed upon the ranch of T. M. Yerkes, of Tubac, Thomas Ventr, (better known as "Old Tom," who formerly drove an ambulance for Col. Lewis) in the door of the house, and took off everything. On Friday, the 10th inst., about forty Apaches attacked the ranch of Mr. E. G. Pennington, some thirteen miles below this post, killing Mr. Pennington who was ploughing in the field near the house, and unarmed, and seriously if not mortally wounding his son Green, A Mexican known as Jose Ondrado is supposed to have escaped down the river, as the last that was seen of him he was making for the brush in that direction pursued by a party of Indians. Two other men, Redwood Brown and one known as Pete, were at work in the same field, but seeing such an overwhelming force of Indians, they fled in the direction of this post and gave the alarm. Thus has an interesting family at a blow been deprived of its main stay and support. A party of twenty men from this post are now out to bring in the killed and wounded. A scout of twenty mounted men under Lieut. Lewis went out yesterday at 3 p. m., for five days.

There is but little doubt that the Indians intend to drive all ranchers from the Sonora and upper Santa Cruz.

How long will the Sappheads at Washington pursue the cruel policy, misnamed humane, of letting these demons loose upon innocent settlers and not leaving a sufficient force in the country to punish them for their acts of rapine and murder.

METEOROLOGICAL:—The following table shows the temperature of the climate of Tucson, from the 1st to the 15th inst., as measured by the thermometer in shade:—
